

Happy Halloween

Happy ~ Holy ~ Evening

Yes! That's right, a holy evening! Why? Because "hallo" in Halloween means holy. Think of the Lord's Prayer: Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed (holy) be Thy name. And "ween" means evening. So, when we say happy Halloween, we are really saying, "Happy Holy Evening." Because tomorrow is All Saint's Day, a holy day. And the night before which is the eve of this holy day, is also holy, because it's a preparation for All Saint's Day. So, when we decorate our house with witches, ghosts, and goblins and dress up similar to this, even if it's done "just for fun", it's really a contradiction to what Halloween is truly about. Let's bring back the true meaning of Halloween.

So with a little treat
We give a little sheet.
To remind you of this Holy Day,
Which is soon about to come our way.

So, now with the true definition of Halloween in mind, I would like to say to you: "God Bless you, and may you truly have a Happy Halloween."
